CUTTS IS ELECTED OUTER GUARDIAN

Next Meeting of Mystic Shrine Will Be Held in

Los Angeles, Cal., May 8.—Ernest atts, of Savannah, Ga., to-day was elected imperial outer guardian by the Imperial Council, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. Dallas, Texas, was chosen for the 1913 conclave. William J. Cunningham, of Baitimore, former imperial deputy potentate, was elected imperial potentate, succeeding John Frank Treat, of Fargo, N. D. William S. Grown, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Berjamin W. Rowell, of Boston, were relected imperial treasurer and imperial recorder, respectively.

The business sessions end to-morfow, and from then till the close of the conclave Friday night the visitors will devote themselves to entertainment. Shrine. Dallas, Texas, was chosen for

The question of granting charters to Roanoke, Va.; Montgomery, Ala.; Fort Smith, Ark., and Nashville, Tsun., have been under discussion by the Imperial Council. It is stated that a charter has been denied to Roanoke.

Preston Belvin, of Virginia, was made an honorary member for life of the Imperial Council.

By winning the relay race and taking the second piace in the railroad baseball sames, sometimes called "tunnell" ball, Acca Temple, of Richmond, carried off the honors of the athletic program at Santa Anita Ranch to-day. The ranch, which was formerly a portion of "Lucky" Baldwin's vast estate, was the scene of a big barbecue and general assembly of temples and patrols. The relay race was run by Robert Forrest, J. Edgar Rose, E. A. Broom and James Price. The course was 200 yards, each man iunning five yards. Acca won it easily. In the tunnell ball game, Acca was first pitted against Tripoli Temple, and again won easily, but Moolah Temple, of St. Louis, defeated its opponent, finishing the game in two minutes and thirty seconds, while Acca required two seconds longer to defeat Tripoli. Acca was consequently given second place in his game, and the most points for the entire contest. The ball players comprised the members of the relay race and Bernard bers of the relay race and Berna
